

Fire Warden Training

DESCRIPTION

An ECO (Emergency Control Organisation) is a structured Warden Team trained and used to initiate & coordinate an appropriate response to all types of emergency situations.

There is a need to reduce and minimise the risks to life and property through effective and specific training. The aim of this course is to implement and train an Emergency Control Organisation (ECO) to be competent and confident of controlling a broad range of threats and emergency situations that may arise within the workplace.

FEATURES

- Customised for building, construction, civil and related industries or other industries as required.

TARGET

This course is targeted at members of the workplace in an Emergency Control Organisation or nominated employees and/or staff members.

CONTENT

- Understand the legislative requirements with regard to the OH&S Act and AS 3745-2002
- Understand the building's fire suppression, detection and Portable Firefighting Equipment
- Warden structure, roles & responsibilities
- Emergency & Evacuation Scenarios
- Controlling the movement of people from danger to safety in an emergency
- Handling refusals & persons with a disability

DURATION

Approximately 3hrs

GROUP SIZE

Approximately fifteen (15) people

LOCATION

- Perth, WA on request
- Sydney, on request
- Onsite / in-house by request.

FEE STRUCTURE

- Perth, WA, fee by request
- Sydney, fee on request
- Onsite / in-house, fee by request

TERMS & CONDITIONS

To view course terms, conditions and policies, please visit www.changenetwork.com.au